Coaches ready to compete at the Boys U19 NORCECA Pan American Cup

GUATEMALA CITY, Guatemala, March 12, 2023.- Coaches of the eight teams attending the Boys U19 NORCECA Pan American Cup are ready for the event that opens on Monday with United States facing Belize.

On Sunday morning, teams went through the preliminary inquiries where they were explained that all participating teams are qualified and eligible to participate in the NORCECA U19 Continental Championship 2024, the qualifying event to the FIVB U19 World Championship.

The official competition game ball will be MIKASA V200W, marking the formal kick off of the new partnership between the NORCECA Volleyball Confederation and MIKASA Corporation.

Coaches shared their insights prior to compete:

Albert Humes, head coach of Belize: “This is the first time for this youth category in Belize to compete at this level and we are really excited to see what they can do to keep our volleyball progressing. This team is not the same one we competed with in the Central American championship back in September and I believe it’s a better one, so I expect a lot of things. We are not satisfied with just coming to represent Belize, we are here to create hard work”.

Robertocarlo Argüello, head coach of Costa Rica: “90 percent of the players are going to this year’s world championship in Argentina. We are glad about the strong competition of our pool in this tournament, alongside United States, Mexico and Belize who showed great level at the Central American championship. This tournament helps us to strive for Argentina. We are here to compete, not to participate and we want to do things well, that’s why we’ve been training hard and it’s not by chance that we are the current Central American champions”.

Luis Fernando Castañeda, head coach of Guatemala: “Guatemala always comes out to compete the best we can and being the host adds a small pressure to perform better. There are teams of great level and we will face each match the best way possible, aiming for a medal. All the boys are motivated, prepared to battle. We have new members in the process, and we hope they achieve what we expect from them; we have trust in each and every one”.

Oscar Viña, head coach of Mexico: “The goal is to finish in the first two places. We consider the tournament favorite is United States, we know about their quality, so we believe we will have great resistance from Puerto Rico. This is great preparation for our team that will be competing this year in Argentina”.

Jorge Mena, head coach of Nicaragua: “Nicaragua always goes to tournaments to compete and not to participate. We are prepared for the challenge and we will give our best; we will try to win the most matches possible and learn with each one of them. We will put up a fight against the bigger teams”.

Carlos De Sevilla Ríos, head coach of Puerto Rico: “This is a great opportunity to prepare for the world championship in Argentina, put into practice new things and mostly with the new rule. The group is a bit different than last year; we have more height, and we hope to reach the first two positions to battle for the gold medal”.

Antoine Vilet, head coach of Suriname: “The team is prepared, they are a young and talented group. We have two months preparing for this tournament, we are ready to compete, to hit and score a valuable experience”.

Mathew Fuerbringer, head coach of United States: “We’re here to start the qualification process for the World Championship. We have great competition; every game is going to be a challenge for us. The boys have been working really hard and we’re coming to win, we are excited for the competition and to get better”.

Entrenadores listos para competir en la Copa Panamericana NORCECA Sub-19 Masculina

CIUDAD DE GUATEMALA, Guatemala, 12 de marzo de 2023.- Los entrenadores de los ocho equipos asistiendo en la Copa Panamericana NORCECA Sub-19 Masculina están listos para la competencia que abre el lunes con Estados Unidos enfrentando a Belice.

El domingo los equipos pasaron por las entrevistas preliminares en donde se les explicó que todos los equipos participantes están clasificados y son elegibles para competir en el Campeonato Continental NORCECA Sub-19 Masculino 2024, el evento clasificatorio al Campeonato Mundial 2025 de la FIVB.

El balón oficial de competencia será MIKASA V200W, marcando el lanzamiento oficial del acuerdo entre la Confederación NORCECA de Voleibol y la Corporación MIKASA.

Los entrenadores compartieron sus perspectivas previo a competir:

Albert Humes, entrenador de Belice: “Esta es la primera vez que Belice compite a este nivel en la categoría y estamos muy emocionados de ver qué pueden hacer para que nuestro voleibol siga progresando. Este equipo no es el mismo con el que competimos en el Campeonato Centroamericano el pasado septiembre y pienso que es mejor, por lo que espero muchas cosas. No estamos satisfechos solo con venir a representar a Belice, estamos acá para crear trabajo fuerte”.

Robertocarlo Argüello, entrenador de Costa Rica: “El 90 por ciento de los jugadores que irán al mundial de este año en Argentina. Estamos contentos de la competitividad que tenemos en este torneo, estando en el grupo junto a Estados Unidos, México y Belice que demostró su calidad en el campeonato centroamericano. El torneo nos hace esforzarnos para Argentina. Venimos a competir, no a participar y queremos hacer las cosas bien, por lo que hemos entrenado fuertemente y no por casualidad es que somos el actual campeón centroamericano”.

Luis Fernando Castañeda, entrenador de Guatemala: “Guatemala sale a competir de la mejor manera y ser sede de una competencia es una presión leve para el equipo en querer hacer las cosas bien. Hay equipos de alto nivel y cada partido lo enfrentaremos de la mejor manera, buscando alcanzar una medalla. Todos los muchachos están motivados, preparados para luchar. Hemos incorporado nuevos elementos al proceso y esperamos que cumplan con lo que esperamos; confiamos en cada uno del equipo”.

Oscar Viña, entrenador de México: “El objetivo es estar entre los dos primeros lugares. Consideramos que el favorito en el torneo es Estados Unidos, conocemos de su calidad, por lo que creemos que tendremos una gran resistencia por parte de Puerto Rico. Este es un gran fogueo para nuestro equipo que estará compitiendo este año en el mundial de Argentina”.

Jorge Mena, entrenador de Nicaragua: “Nicaragua siempre llega a los torneos a competir y no a participar. Estamos preparados para el reto y daremos lo mejor de nosotros; trataremos de ganar la mayor cantidad de juegos posibles y aprender de cada uno. Ante los equipos grandes les daremos pelea”.

Carlos De Sevilla Ríos, entrenador de Puerto Rico: “Esta es una buena oportunidad para nuestra preparación para el mundial de Argentina, poner en práctica cosas nuevas y más con el cambio de la regla de juego. El grupo es un poco diferente al del año pasado, traemos un poco más de altura y esperamos entrar entre las primeras dos posiciones para luchar por la medalla de oro”.

Antoine Vilet, entrenador de Surinam: “El equipo está preparado, son un grupo joven y talentoso. Tenemos dos meses preparándonos para este torneo, estamos listos para competir, para pegar y apuntar a una experiencia valiosa”.

Mathew Fuerbringer, entrenador de Estados Unidos: “Estamos acá para iniciar el proceso de clasificación al Campeonato Mundial. Tenemos gran competencia; cada partido será un reto para nosotros. Los muchachos han estado trabajando muy fuerte y venimos a ganar, estamos emocionados por la competencia y por mejorar”.
