Men's and women's tournaments May 16-19 at Hershey Centre in Mississauga

OTTAWA – The road to the FIVB World Championships goes through the Hershey Centre in Mississauga for Canada's men's and women's national volleyball teams as they look to lock up spots for the season's biggest event this Friday to Monday \(May 16-19\) at a qualifying tournament.

The men's national team made giant strides in 2013 climbing from 18th to 11th in the world rankings thanks to a fifth place finish in the World League tournament and is a heavy favorite to win this weekend's tournament.

The Canadians host Panama, Trinidad and Tobago and Costa Rica and face those teams on May 16-17-18 respectively with the medal matches set for May 19.

Canada is led by high scoring attacker Gavin Schmitt of Saskatoon, Gord Perrin of Creston, B.C., and Dallas Soonias of Red Deer, Alta., who ranked in the top-five spikers last season in the World League and top-10 blockers Adam Simac of Ottawa and Fred Winters of Victoria.

On the women's side, Canada is currently ranked 20th in the world and faces a major opponent in Mexico, ranked 28th internationally. The Canadians face Jamaica, Mexico and the U.S. Virgin Islands May 16-17-18.

The women's team includes former CIS athlete of the year Shanice Marcelle of Victoria, Marie Pierre Murray-Methot of Quebec City and Tasha Holness of Calgary.

"It's very important that both our men's and women's teams qualify in Mississauga, so this makes it very exciting for our coaches and athletes," said Julien Boucher, Volleyball Canada's High Performance Director. "We're looking forward to making our home-country fans proud!"

The men and women round robin games featuring Canada are back-to-back starting at 6 p.m. with the gold medal matches at 6 p.m. and 8 p.m. on Monday.

The Hershey Centre has a 5,400 seating capacity and it also played host to two weekends of World League action in 2013.

The events in Canada are part of the third round for the NORCECA (North, Central America and Caribbean Volleyball Confederation) qualifying process, with the winner of each the men and women's tournament advancing to their respective World Championship.

The 2014 FIVB World Championships for men will be held in Poland, August 30 to September 21, 2014, and Italy will host the women for the first time ever from September 23 to October 12 in 2014.

Tickets can be purchased through ticketmaster.ca

All matches will be streamed live at <http://volleyballsourcemag.com/live>

Coaches Quotes

Glenn Hoag – Team Canada men’s coach:

“We’re very happy to be back in Canada and working as a team. We are just starting to get into a rhythm again and comfortable with the flow.... All our focus this week is solely on qualifying for the World Championships.”

Angulo Calderon – Team Panama men’s coach:

“This is our third time in Canada, and our preparation for this tournament was very good. We have a mix of experienced players and younger players who have come up from the Junior team. We are looking forward to this competition.”

Gideon Dickson – Trinidad and Tobago men’s coach:

“It was challenging to get here, but it’s a great opportunity to showcase the skills, abilities and potential of Trinidad volleyball. This is historic for our team, as it’s the first time we have gone this far in the process (of qualifying for the Worlds).”

Cesar Salas – Costa Rica men’s coach:

“We are very happy. It’s a new team, new players. This experience is very important, as important as it is to qualify.”

Arnd (Lupo) Ludwig – Team Canada women’s coach:

“We had a very good training year with this relatively new team. Our main goal is to win and get to Italy. We are very excited to be playing here in Canada and we need as much competitive experience possible to prepare for the Grand Prix and the World Championships.”

Ortnel Findlay – Team Jamaica women’s coach:

“Our goal is to win, to qualify. We are hoping for the best and so far it was one of our biggest successes just to get here.”

Jorge Azair – Team Mexico women’s coach:

“This is a new team., a new beginning for this team. Our hope is to qualify, of course, and not have to go through another qualifier. Since I was previously the men’s coach, this is new also for me as a coach.”
