Córdoba a la espera de que se ponga el balón en juego en los JCC

CÓRDOBA, México, Noviembre 14 2014 - Los entrenadores de los equipos participantes en el torneo de voleibol de los XXII Juegos Centroamericanos y del Caribe compartieron sus expectativas en torno a la competencia que inicia este sábado en la Arena Córdoba.

Mauro Marasciulo, Entrenador de Colombia: Estamos en un grupo muy fuerte muy complicado. Nos tocaba un grupo más sencillo por ranking, pero México que es anfitrión tenía el derecho a elegir su grupo. Nosotros tenemos un equipo muy joven que ganó la medalla de plata en Copa Panamericana sub 23 y que clasificó al Grand Prix Mundial. Hemos tenido un gran año.

Horacio Bastit, Entrenador de Costa Rica: Sabemos la envergadura de los juegos y por lo que hemos percibido, todos los equipos están en su máximo potencial. Así que nos vamos encontrar equipos de calibre internacional y nuestras expectativas son intentar pasar a una segunda ronda y tratar de hacer el mejor papel posible.

Juan Carlos Gala, Entrenador de Cuba: Para nosotros es un momento cumbre. Va a ser la competencia más importante. Estamos bien preparados. El equipo viene a buscar un lugar en el pódium. Esta será una competencia en la que la juventud de nuestro equipo puede mostrar el desarrollo que ha tenido en este año.

Marcos Kwiek, Entrenador de República Dominicana: Nosotros venimos de un campeonato mundial muy fuerte. El equipo llegó muy cansado. Pero tuvimos tiempo de recuperarnos. Estoy con el equipo completo, no tenemos ninguna lesión. Será una contienda difícil, por que todos vienen a ganar. No hay muchos juegos como en el mundial, pero todos los juegos son importantes.

Jorge Azair, Entrenador de México: Estamos ansiosos ya. Siempre lo previo es un poco lo más difícil para nosotros. Estamos muy motivados por que pues es en casa. Hay que defender la casa y dejar la piel en el alma ahí y luchar por el oro, por qué no.

José Mieles, Entrenador de Puerto Rico: Ya llevamos un año con el equipo. Un año de muchas competencias y cerramos el año bien entusiasmado. Con muchos objetivos. Vengo con un equipo diferente, pero siempre manteniendo un grupo estable. Vengo con la abanderada de Puerto Rico que es Aury Cruz. Es un equipo joven pero experimentado a nivel internacional.

Sergio Rivero, Entrenador de Venezuela: Nos agrada mucho estar en México y poder presentar el voleibol venezolano una vez más en el escenario internacional. Hace dos ediciones que no participamos en los Juegos y esto va a representar para nosotros reinsertarnos en este nivel.

Nicholson Drakes, Entrenador de Trinidad y Tobago: “Esperamos jugar muy fuerte. Tenemos una buena preparación. Estamos comprometidos a jugar en un buen torneo y dar lo mejor de nosotros. A pesar de que somos un equipo con altura y fortaleza física, una competencia como esta nos servirá para ganar mayor experiencia”.

Cordoba awaits as the ball gets in play at CACG

CORDOBA, Mexico, November 14 2014 - Head coaches of the competing teams that will take part at the volleyball tournament of the XXII Central American and Caribbean Games shared their expectations about the regional quadriennial championship that begins on Saturday at the Cordoba Arena.

Mauro Marasciulo, Coach of Colombia: We are in a very tough and complicated group. We expected to play in a less complicated Pool, but Mexico had the right to chose anyone. We have a very young team that won silver medal at the U23 Pan American Cup and also classified to the 2015 Women's Grand Prix. So this has been a great year for us.

Horacio Bastit, Coach of Costa Rica: We know about the caliber of these games. And as we know, all the competing teams are playing with their highest potential. So we are going to face international caliber teams and our expectations are to try to qualify to the second round, and try to do our best.

Juan Carlos Gala, Coach of Cuba: For us this will be a key momento. This will be the most important competition and we are well prepared. We, as a team are looking for a place among the medal winners. Our young players will have the chance to show how they have developed their skills for the last year.

Marcos Kwiek, Coach of Dominican Republic: We come from a long competition like the world championship. It was very tough. Our team came back very tired. But we had enough time to recover. The team is complete. We have no injuries. This will be a difficult competition, because everybody wants to win. There are not many matches like in the world championship, but every match is important.

Jorge Azair, Coach of México: We feel some anxiety. Always the previous details are a little bit difficult for us, but we feel very motivated because we will play at home, and want to leave our soul on the field and why not, to fight for the gold medal.

José Mieles, Entrenador de Puerto Rico: We have spent a year with this team. This has been a year with a lot of competitions and we close the year with a lot of enthusiasm. It is a different team like the one we had at the World Championship with a lot of objectives. It's a very united group. We come with Aury Cruz who is our delegation flagbearer. It's a young but very experienced team internationally.

Sergio Rivero, Coach of Venezuela: We are very glad to be in Mexico and to represent Venezuelan Volleyball one more time at the International stage. We haven't competed at the two previous editions, so this will be a great chance for us to appear once again at the International level.

Nicholson Drakes, coach of Trinidad and Tobago: "We expect to play very hard. We have a good preparation. We are committed to play a very good tournament and give our best. Despite being a tall and physical team, we need to gain some experience in a tournament like this"
