LIMA, Peru, June 21, 2015 - United States captured their third title in the last four years at the Women's Volleyball Pan American Cup with a clear victory in straight sets 3-0 (25-20, 25-20, 25-15) over the Dominican Republic at the Eduardo Dibos Coliseum in Lima on Sunday night.

The triumph enabled USA to tie with Cuba at the top of the all-time list in gold medals with 4 at the annual intercontinental event. Dominican Republic and Brazil, the only other countries with titles in the history of the competition, have both won three times.

The new champions dominated their opponents in attacks (43-27), blocks (11-5) and aces (4-2).

Lauren Paolini, Krista Vansant and Cursty Jackson were the best scorers for USA with 13, 11 and 10 points respectively. Brayelin Martinez was the only Dominican player with double digits in the scoring charts with 12 points.

In the match for the bronze medal, Argentina defeated Cuba in straight sets, while Canada and Brazil won over Puerto Rico and Colombia in the contests for fifth and seventh place, respectively.

Argentina claimed their third bronze medal in the history of the event by outplaying Cuba in straight sets 3-0 (25-23, 25-23, 25-20).
