Antigua and Barbuda take Group E Bronze

GROS ISLET, St Lucia, August 10, 2017: Antigua and Barbuda secured the bronze medal, stopping St Kitts and Nevis 3-2( 24-26, 25-27, 25-20, 25-19, 15-9) in men's Group E of the NORCECA Zone of the (FIVB) World Championships qualification round for teams in the Eastern Caribbean Volleyball Association (ECVA), here at the Beausejour Indoor facility.

St Kitts and Nevis had shown early signs of taking the match, but faltered as Antigua and Barbuda, refocussed and got their passing and setting intact.

At the top of Antigua and Barbuda's scoring were the Outside Hitter- Jamarie James and Opposite Hitter- Xavier Roberts, an Opposite Hitter, as the two had 20 points each. For St Kitts and Nevis, Outside Hitter- Shawn Seabrooks had 31 points.

Antigua and Barbuda won Attacks 70-59; Blocks 9-8, Service Aces 8-3 and was superior in errors, 101- 113.

Captain of Antigua and Barbuda, Olsen Joseph in evaluating his team's final placing, confessed it was what they bargained for.

"It was not the bronze we came here for... We were expecting first ... We lost out on a place in the final by 0.06 of point in the whole point system", he said.

Joseph, on reflection blamed the early lost to Dominica for his team's failure to make to the championship match.

St Vincent and the Grenadines and Dominica play in the gold medal match.

St Vincent and the Grenadines and Dominica play for gold

GROS ISLET, St Lucia, August 10, 2017: St Vincent and the Grenadines and Dominica will contest the final of men's Group E of the NORCECA Zone of the (FIVB) World Championships qualification round for teams in the Eastern Caribbean Volleyball Association (ECVA), here at the Beausejour Indoor facility.

And, despite Antigua and Barbuda beat St Vincent and the Grenadines 3-2( 19-25, 19-25, 25-22, 25-20, 15-12) , it was not enough for them to edge out Dominica, as all three teams finished on two wins and one loss each.

St Vincent and the Grenadines outweighed the others, accumulating 10 points, having won the most sets, eight.

Dominica and Antigua and Barbuda were the same on points, seven, and same on sets won and loss, as each won seven and lost six.

It then came down to the points ratio registered. Dominica finished on 0.966, and Antigua and Barbuda, 0.960.

In the final match of the preliminary round, Antigua and Barbuda came from two sets down to blemish St Vincent and the Grenadines' previous undefeated record.

Scoring the most points for Antigua and Barbuda were Collin Thomas (Outside Hitter) and Xavier Roberts (Opposite Hitter), who both tallied 15.

But having a game high 24 points, was Opposite Hitter – Ronaldo Franklyn, while Outside Hitter- Asmond Franklyn registered 18.

Full of expectancy going into the final, coach of the St Vincent and the Grenadines outfit – Brian Burke reiterated, “We came here with one mission to make it to the next round and we are one step away from doing that”.

Burke feels that despite the hiccup against Antigua and Barbuda, his players are ready to refocus in the champion match.

Antigua and Barbuda and St Kitts and Nevis, play in the match seven, for the third and fourth places.

Dominica rebound to beat St Kitts and Nevis in five- setter

GROS ISLET, St Lucia, August 10 2017: After losing the first two sets to St Kitts and Nevis, Dominica responded well to come out victors 3-2 (21-25, 18-25, 25-20, 25-23, 15-12 ) and remained in contention in the men's Group E of the NORCECA Zone of World Championships Qualifiers second round at the Beausejour Indoor facility.

Crafting Dominica's win were Middle Blockers – Yhan Florent who scored 23 points and Kershaskie John Lewis, who registered 13 points of his own.

For St Kitts and Nevis, Outside Hitter- Shawn Seabrooks had 20 points to his credit and St Clair Hodge another Outside Hitter, scored 16.

Dominica outdid St Kitts and Nevis in Attacks (60-48) and Blocks (9-2). Dominica was less faulty than St Kitts and Nevis, committing 33 errors to their 51.

In the non-scoring skills, Dominica was excellent in Sets, 18-16 and Reception, 70-57.

A relieved captain of the Dominica team- Ray Robinson spoke of having to “struggle”, to overcome their opponents.

“ We had to dig deep to get this second win ... It took us a lot of hard work, but we have put ourselves with a chance to get into the finals... We just have to wait on the results between St Vincent and the Grenadines and Antigua and Barbuda”, Robinson stated.

In further assessing his team's play, Robinson thumbed a tactical change in the line-up between rookie Kershaskie John Lewis and Yhan Florent, which changed their fortunes.

“That switch made a huge difference as John Lewis sparked the comeback as the team began passing better and we began serving better”, Robinson related.

The loss by St Kitts and Nevis saw them winless in their three matches, hence they will play in the consolation places in the four –team group.

St Vincent and the Grenadines next meets Antigua and Barbuda in match six, the final encounter in the preliminary round.

St Vincent and the Grenadines take gold in Group E

GROS ISLET, St Lucia, August 10, 2017: St Vincent and the Grenadines secured the gold medal with a 3-1 (22-25, 25-19, 25-18, 25-21) trouncing of Dominica in men's Group E of the NORCECA Zone World Championships qualification round for teams in the Eastern Caribbean Volleyball Association (ECVA), here at the Beausejour Indoor facility.

After losing the first set, the Vincentians regrouped and took command of the championship match, by some controlled spiking, and astute blocking to numb Dominica's plans.

Combining their scoring prowess, Opposite Hitter – Ronaldo Franklyn with 16 points; Outside Hitter- Asmond Franklyn- 15 points, and Middle Blockers- Kemaull Lee and Marcus Thomas, contributing 11 points each, St Vincent and the Grenadines distributed the responsibilities.

In contrast, only Middle Blocker – Yhan Florent with 22 points, got into double figures for Dominica.

St Vincent and the Grenadines was better at Attacks 44-39; Blocks 10-7 and Service Aces 8-4.

Glee etched on the faces of St Vincent and the Grenadines head coach – Brian Burke and team captain – Daryl Franklyn, at their team's accomplishment.

An elated Burke speaking on his team's triumph stated, " Words cannot describe the feeling , as we have a set of youngsters, with half of them either still in school or just graduated and come here and accomplish this is really a tremendous feat".

Burke said that preparations for the team's next assignment will begin immediately on return to their homeland.

Meanwhile team captain Daryl Franklyn reflected: "I am very excited about this win ... It is the first time I am taking home a victory as the team's leader ".

Franklyn reported that after losing the first set to Dominica, they were not daunted as they knew they had it to bounce back instantly.

"During the first set the players were nervous because they really wanted to win... I had to reassure them that all of them are match winners and they all have the ability to score, receive, pass and this paid off for us", Franklyn related.

Losing captain- Ray Robinson in congratulating St Vincent and the Grenadines in their triumph noted, "St Vincent and the Grenadines seem to want it more than we ... They have some good young talents and they played well"

Reflecting on his team's performance in the championship match, Robinson stated, "We did not play as hard as we should ... We played better than our first match, but at some crucial moments , we left too many points slide". By virtue of winning the group, St Vincent and the Grenadines booked a place as one of two representatives from the ECVA zone, to the NORCECA Continental Championships in Colorado Springs USA next month.

St Vincent's Ronaldo Franklyn pouch Group E MVP

GROS ISLET, St Lucia, August 10, 2017: St Vincent and the Grenadines' Ronaldo Franklyn was named the Most Valuable Player in the men's Group E of the NORCECA Zone World Championships qualification round for teams in the Eastern Caribbean Volleyball Association (ECVA), held at the Beausejour Indoor facility.

In addition to his top award, Franklyn, was one of two best Outside Hitters.

Gold medallist, St Vincent and the Grenadines secured five other individual awards. Daryl Franklyn won the Best Receiver award; Jahmal Small – Best Setter, also Marcus Thomas- one of two Best Middle Blockers. Asmond Franklyn copped the other award of Best Outside Hitters and Jad Martin won the Best Digger accolade.

The others individual awards were presented to Shawn Seabrooks of St Kitts and Nevis – Best Scorer; Yhan Florent of Dominica, the other Best Middle Blocker, with Yashid Auguiste of Antigua and Barbuda- Best Libero and Jamarie James, also of Antigua and Barbuda- Best Server. Final team placing: 1 – St Vincent and the Grenadines, 2- Dominica, 3- Antigua and Barbuda, 4- St Kitts and Nevis
