Match 1: Anguilla vs. Sint Maarten

St. Maarten dismisses old nemesis Anguilla in a five set thriller

Neighbouring islands Anguilla and St. Maarten renewed “cross water” rivalries with an intense five set thriller, which resulted in the score of 23-25; 23- 25; 26- 24; 27- 25; 15-11 in favour of St. Maarten. The games were nerve racking as only two points separated the teams in each game. But constant service errors and other lapses helped to keep both teams at bay.

Akilah Meulens (1) was St. Maarten’s leading scorer with some thirteen (13) points. Ms. Meulens peppered the Anguillans with some blistering cross court shots. She was ably assisted by Keishan Huggins (5) and Captain Lathasha Mills (4), who scored nine (9) and eight (8) points respectively.

Anguilla’s Ludiane “Ludie” Leveret Richardson (1) led her team with twenty points (20), while Janai Gumbs contributed some fifteen (15) points. They were ably supported by Rikiesha Leveret who contributed eleven (11) points. Setter Connie Liburd was made to move a lot as passes often strayed from the mark. However, she was able to keep her team close though they could not convert it to a victory.

Captain Mills indicated the game was very stressful as Anguilla did not relent on pressure. However, team St. Maarten stood fast and eventually won the game. Coach Dimitri Beauperthny also gave kudos to the opposition as it push St. Maarten to the limits. Anguilla’s team Captain Ludiane and Coach Jason Liburd were of the view the team could have performed better, but stated that the many team errors made the difference. While noting it was, a disappointed Coach Liburd felt his team could have won the game, having started with a two (2) set to zero (0) advantage.

Match 2: Tortola vs. Bermuda

Bermuda defeats the British Virgin Islands in the battle of the Bs

Following an airline delay, Team British Virgin Islands (IVB) suffered a defeat at the hands of Bermuda with a score line of 25-8; 25-17; 25 – 20 . Bermuda actively exploited the weaker passers in sets one and two causing many passing faults. Bermuda's march to victory was led by outside hitter Khinda Pearmon- Watson (10) who scored eleven points and produced some solid defense. The victor's tactical style and the errors of their opponents gave them the match.

The British Virgin Islands did not acquiesce but fought valiantly to the end. As the sets progressed, team British Virgin Islands continually improved and players showed a sense of urgency. The mother, daughter combination of Captain Sabina Clement (5) and Dainyah Mason (8) led the team offense with nine (9) and six (6) points respectively. Their example helped to settle their team mates and boost morale.

Alison Settle – Smith (4) indicated Bermuda had good intensity and passed well. She was of the view the team needs to communicate more but the victory was a good start to the tournament. Coach Elisabeth Rae was pleased with the game plan execution, serving and communication. However, she would like to see a reduction in the number of errors made.

Captain Sabina Clement felt her team showed the lingering effects of a very late flight, tiredness and this impacted their psyche. Though the team started on a loose footing and somewhat jittery, the team corrected itself and improved during the course of the game. Coach Stephan Payne echoed similar sentiments to that of the team captain. He further stated there were too many unforced errors. "If those were removed the result could have been different".

Match 3: St. Maarten vs. Bermuda

St. Maarten marched to victory over Bermuda

St. Maarten rode a wave of confidence as they defeated Bermuda with the scores of 25-22; 15-25; 25-22; 25- 23. With the support of a loud home crowd, St. Maarten was able to overcome many close moments to leave the court with a win. Team Captain Mills worked hard to encourage her ladies to perform when it mattered most. Her team produced a three prong attack with Carlijin Van Bergen (9) scoring thirteen points (13), Keishan Huggins (5) contributing eleven (11) points and Captain Mills contributing another ten (10) points.

Bermuda pushed their opposition physically and mentally, though they lost the game. Team Captain, Alison Settle – Smith (4) showed good leadership skills as she directed her offense to strike fear in the hearts of the opposition. Outside hitter Khinda Pearmon- Watson (10) showed her prowess as she spiked with little resistance from their opposition. Her exploits produced twenty three (23) points, thus leading her team's attack.

Captain Lathasha Mills of St. Maarten was relieved to have won the match. She said the opposition played a very good game but St. Maarten's error of relaxing in the second set could have costed them the match. Team coach Dimitri Beauperthny said the game showed the versatility of the group and their strength and confidence grew. Both the coach and captain of St. Maarten complimented the tireless effort of their opposition.

Captain Alison Settle-Smith (4) of Bermuda stated the opposition rose to the challenge as they overcame the loss of a set to win the match. Despite that, Bermuda's team played well, but the home crowd support was insurmountable. Coach Elisabeth Rae was proud of her team and witnessed her players rising to the occasion when it mattered most.

Match 4: Anguilla vs. British Virgin Islands

Anguilla builds confidence by defeating the British Virgin Islands

Anguilla recognized the enormity of the game, as they defeated the British Virgin Islands with a score of 25-12; 25- 20; 25- 11. Ludie and the ladies did not relent in pressuring their opposition with good serves and sound defense. Ms. Leveret continued leading her team with fourteen (14) points. She was well supported by the Janai Gumbs and Rikeisha Leveret, who each scored eight (8) points.

The British Virgin Islands, showed great poise as they managed their fatigue from the previous game and show improvements in serving. Captain Clement was a true General as she led the way in motivation and scoring (6 points). Daijha Matthew played a supportive role with her sterling defense. Unfortunately it did not stop team Anguilla.

Anguilla's Captain, Ludiane Leveret pointed to honest team conversations about the previous game, as part of the catalyst for improvement. This was complimented by the actual execution of the game plan. Coach Liburd showed how the team's improved serving resulted in renewed confidence for Anguilla. He further stated our team still has a chance to prove they are the better team of the tournament.

Captain Sabina Clement indicated the British Virgin Islands team was fatigued from limited recovery time but noted there was an improvement in passing. Team Coach Stephan Payne made similar observations but also noted a paucity of experienced players was a pivotal element in this game.
