CAZOVA CHAMPIONSHIPS 2022

UNDER 21 CAZOVA CHAMPS MALE

DRIVEN TO SUCCEED,
FROM PANDEMIC TO PODIUM

JULY 7TH -11TH 2022
Pleasantville, Trinidad & Tobago.

PLEASANTVILLE, San Fernando, Trinidad, July 7, 2022: Haiti made a winning start to its bid to claim the title left vacant by six-time winners Barbados when they came-from-behind to subdue Jamaica 3-1 (23-25, 25-16, 25-16, 25-21) in their 2021 Caribbean Zonal Volleyball Association Junior Men (Under-21) Championship round-robin opener at the Southern Regional Indoor Sports Arena.

Commenting on his team's win after the closely fought contest against the Jamaicans who were the last to arrive in the country on Wednesday night and had an extended stay in immigration, Haitian coach Junior Siecle said he was satisfied with the win.

"I'm very pleased with the win but going forward we still have to make some corrections as I'm not satisfied with our blocking."

Captain, Dieulengy Relis added, "We started off a bit slow but then we found our momentum and played much better as the match went along."

"We are very happy to start with the win, and now we must continue to improve to win our other matches as well.

Steve Davis, coach of Jamaica said his team was affected by jet lag and a lack of rest.

"We are not ones to make excuses but we had a very travelling schedule where we reached in late and also had a long stay in immigration.

"Apart from that we also had little preparation time at home due to exams and we know that our players can improve their level of play and will improve in the next match.

Andrae Robb captain of Jamaica also said he felt his team was badly affected by their travelling scheduled in addition to lacking in confidence.

"We know where we fell short in this match and we need to improve for our next encounter."

Up next for Haiti will be a meeting with Suriname on Saturday, July 9 from 12 noon in the five-nation round-robin winner-take-all competition while Jamaica will have a short turn-around as it plays host Trinidad and Tobago on Friday, July 8 from 1 pm. Also on Friday, July 9, from 11 am, US Virgin Islands faces Suriname.

CAZOVA CHAMPIONSHIPS 2022

UNDER 21 CAZOVA CHAMPS MALE

DRIVEN TO SUCCEED,
FROM PANDEMIC TO PODIUM

JULY 7TH -11TH 2022
Pleasantville, Trinidad & Tobago.

PLEASANTVILLE, San Fernando, Trinidad, July 7, 2022: Host Trinidad and Tobago began their campaign with a five-set entertaining win (3-2) 25-18, 21-25, 25-20, 10-25, 15-9 over a stubborn US Virgin Islands in their 2021 Caribbean Zonal Volleyball Association Junior Men (Under-21) Championship round-robin opener at the Southern Regional Indoor Sports Arena.

Commenting after the win in the see-saw battle that had the spectators on the edge of their seats from the first serve, Trinidad and Tobago coach Peer Nasseir said his team had a nervous start and made too many errors.

"Our mistakes on our passing and serving almost cost us the match and I believe we were very lucky to come away with the win.

Isaac Raphael, coach of the US Virgin Islands team said he was very proud of his team despite the loss.

"Our preparation for this tournament was not all that good, and it was shown in our serving which I felt was weak, but overall I'm happy with the effort and very excited for what the future holds for this team because we have many young players among this group.

Gabriel Rosa, captain of the US Virgin Islands team said his team were able to do a lot of good things despite the defeat.

"We know we have some basics to work on and we know there is great potential among this group to do well, but we just need to work out the kinks."

Up next for Trinidad and Tobago is a match against Jamaica on Friday, July, 8 from 1 pm while US Virgin Islands meet Suriname from 1 pm.
