PRESS RELEASE

PLEASANTVILLE, San Fernando, Trinidad, July 9, 2022: US Virgin Islands secured a straight sets win over Suriname 3-0 (25-23, 25-11, 25-15) to end their round-robin series in the 2021 Caribbean Zonal Volleyball Association (CAZOVA) Junior Women (Under-21) Championship at the Southern Regional Indoor Sports Arena (SRISA) with a perfect record of 2-0 and ten points.

However, the victory for coach Isaac Raphael may prove to be very costly one in the end after team captain, his daughter Alek-Wek Raphael suffered a left-leg injury with her team ahead 19-7 in the second set and looks certain to be out the final between the same two teams on Sunday, July 10 from 7 pm with a spot at the NORCECA Under-21 Women's Continental Championship from April 16 to 24, 2023 in the USA at stake, with the world event set for September in a country yet to be named.

Suriname ended the round-robin phase with a 1-1 win-loss record and five points after their win over host Trinidad and Tobago on Friday, July, 8 to secure their spot in the gold medal of the three-team tournament, while Trinidad and Tobago, ended winless (0-2) got the bronze medals.

Commenting on the win the senior Raphael said he knew that his team had already qualified for the final but he also wanted to try out some tactical plans that were discussed. "We saw Suriname played against Trinidad and Tobago and prepared accordingly and all was going to plan despite the few errors we made in the first set.

"Unfortunately, just when we were about to make some key substitutions we had a bad injury to our captain, but what I was happy about was that the other players showed they were capable of stepping up which they did and we need that same effort in the final."

Despite her injury, captain Raphael was happy for her team-mates and expressed full confidence in their ability to win the title even in her absence. She said, "Injuries always sucks, but my team never let it deter them and we have a mind-set that if one player goes down, then another player has to step up, and that's what they did. So in the gold medal match we are going to come with the same positive attitude to come out with the win."

Claudius Straal, coach of Suriname said his game plan from the on set was to win the match once his team was in a position to accomplish it. "We always play to win, but luckily this meeting was not the important one between both teams and it allowed me a chance to give all the players a chance to express themselves on court in various positions." "The difference in the outcome today was that we did not had a good service passing game and tomorrow we will need to do much better for us to win."

Suriname vice-captain Chontelle Lisse echoed the views of her coach saying it was important to allow some playing time to the bench players. "We tried to get all the players to get a chance to play in different positions to see the many other possibilities, but we will be ready for the final."
