CAZOVA quartet advances to Antigua Olympic qualifying semis

CASATAWAYS BEACH, JOLLY HARBOUR, ANTIGUA, JANUARY 22, 2016: Pre-Tournament favourites, Trinidad and Tobago led a quartet of teams from the Caribbean Zonal Volleyball Association (CAZOVA) to advance to the main draw semifinals on the first day of the Second Round of NORCECA Continental Cup qualifiers to this year's Rio de Janeiro Olympic Games Beach Volleyball Tournament.

Joining T&T, winners of the CAZOVA Round One qualifiers on home soil, in the last four of the main draw were Curacao, Jamaica and US Virgin Islands who all reached the Third Round of NORCECA Qualifiers as well later this year. However, it was not all smooth sailing for the top two ranked CAZOVA teams in T&T and Jamaica as they were both taken to "Golden Set" quarterfinal deciders by Barbados and Suriname respectively after getting round-of-16 byes.

For T&T, it was "Déjà vu" all over again as just as they did in the regional final with Jamaica last year, its top ranked team of Daneil Williams and Fabien Whitfield had to come to their team rescue with a "Golden Set" win over Barbadians Kyle Browne and Ronald Rice 15-10 to secure a 3-2 team triumph and a main draw semifinal spot against Curacao from 12.40pm on Saturday.

Earlier on when the match served off, Williams and Whitfield (T&T-A) beat Browne and Shaquille Barker (Barbados-B), 21-12, 21-11 for a 1-0 lead.

However, the Barbados-A pair of veteran Elwyn Oxley and Rice overcame Simon Blake and Christian Francois (T&T-B), 21-14, 22-20 to level the match at 1-1.

Whitfield and Williams, twice bronze medal winners on the NORCECA Beach Circuit last season restored T&T's lead at 2-1 by sweeping past Oxley and Rice 21-15, 21-12 in their reverse match-up.

But with a chance to close out the match at 3-1, Blake and Francois, failed to find their best form and went under to Browne and Barker, 21-15, 21-23, 12-15 to send the match to a "Golden Set" where the top T&T pair showed their superiority over the Barbadians who brushed aside Dominica 3-0 in their opening match-up.

Curacao booked its place in the main draw semifinals by battling past St Vincent and The Grenadines, 3-2 via a "Golden Set" in the round-of-16 and then, Antigua & Barbuda, which was on a first round bye, 3-0.

Curacao-B duo Henrich Daal and Giandro Tokaay got their team off to a good start by easing past Asmond Franklyn and Ronaldo Franklyn VIN-B 21-14, 21-11, but Cassius Franklyn and Welcome Delshun of VIN-A rallied past Darwin Colina and Norandy Bonafasia CUR-A 21-17, 17-21, 15-11 to get their team back into the match.

Colina and Bonafasia redeemed themselves via their win over VIN-B 21-15, 21-14.

However, VIN-A humbled CUR-B 21-12, 21-12 to send the match into the fifth and deciding match, in which Colina and Bonafasia got sweet revenge, 15-8 against Cassius Franklyn and Delshun.

Curacao had a much easier outing in the quarterfinal as Daal/Tokaay brushed aside Collin Thomas/Jamarie James ANT-A 21-18, 21-17 and Colina and Bonafasia overcame Adrian Constant and Rixon Joseph ANT-B 21-7, 21-12 before Colina and Bonafasia won by default from ANT-A 21-0, 21-0 due to an injury to James.

The USVI registered 3-0 sweeps of Dutch St Maarten and Eastern Caribbean Volleyball Association first round winners, St Lucia in the round-of-16 and quarterfinals respectively while Jamaica, which ended runner-up to T&T in the CAZOVA round one qualifiers, and had a first round bye battled past Suriname 3-2 via a "Golden Set" decider.

First up, ISV-A duo, Jake Die Trich and Marc

Lomeli cruised past Shiovanni Levenstone/Lincoln Arrundell SXM-A 21-15, 21-13 while Brian Kwasny and Dillon Lusniak ISV-B defeated Riegmar Valies and Shawn Gumbs SXM-B 21-13, 21-10 for a 2-0 lead which was followed by Die Trich and Lomeli dumped Valies and Gumbs 21-12, 21-10 to seal a 3-0 triumph.

This was followed by an equally dazzling showing against ECVA first round champions, St Lucia where ISV-A battled past Tevin St Jean/Darnel Eudoxie LCA-B 23-25, 21-12, 17-15; ISV-B d Joseph Clercent/Augustin Faulkner LCA-A 21-11, 21-14 and ISV-B stopped LCA-B 21-16, 29-27.

And in the other main draw quarterfinal, Jamaica was made to dig deep for its win over Suriname.

Mark Lewis and Ryck Webb-Mc Kenzie JAM-A beat Antonie Vilet and Jermain Lo Kioeng SUR-B 21-17, 21-6, but Furgil Ong A Fat/Keven Sporkslede SUR-A defeated Triston Hitchman and Christopher Walters JAM-B 21-15, 21-15 to level the match at 1-1.

JAM-A whipped SUR-A 21-13, 21-10 to regain the lead at 2-1, however, SUR-B overcame JAM-B 22-20, 21-17 to tie the series at 2-2 to set up the Golden Set, where Lewis and Webb-Mc Kenzie held off Ong A Fat and Sporkslede SUR 15-11 to seal the win.

It was not all doom and gloom for the first day losers in Antigua, as they will resume play today (Saturday) as well in the losers draw through to bronze medal match to earn a top eight spot and qualification to the Third Round of the Olympic Qualifiers. First serve on Saturday is 8am.
