Canada accomplishes qualification goal at Women's Continental Championship

Langley, British Columbia, CANADA. September 29, 2017: Canada remains undefeated with a 3-0 win today over Nicaragua (25-13, 25-10, 25-8) at the NORCECA Senior Women's Continental Championship and World Championship Qualification Tournament (Group B).

The win puts Canada in the top two teams, with Cuba, to advance to the 2018 World Championships, which will be held in Japan. The teams face off on Saturday for number one spot in this group.

Today, Canada's Marie-Alex Bélanger was top scorer with 17, including five aces, followed by teammate Alexa Gray with 16 points. Amalia Hernandez was Nicaragua's top scorer with six points.

Nicaragua will play St. Lucia tomorrow for third and fourth places in this tournament.

Marcello Abbondanza, head coach of Canada: "Tonight was very important because we took the qualification and we played good volleyball. Now the big challenge is tomorrow against Cuba – we are already both qualified, but I think tomorrow is important for us to show how we have progressed and to demonstrate some good volleyball to the Canadian fans."

Kyla Richey, player, Canada : "I think we've been working towards Cuba for the last month and a half. We knew that these were two games (against St. Lucia and Nicaragua) we had to win before we got to Cuba. We just need to stay aggressive and take the energy of the home crowd in the match tomorrow. It's so awesome to be playing in front of a home crowd and we want to show our fans some competitive volleyball."

Rene Quintana, head coach of Nicaragua: "I feel good about the game. Obviously, Canada is a real strong team, but we did the best we could so that we could give a good match, or good rallies at least.... First of all, in Central America there is no team that plays at the level Canada or Cuba play at. We take away the experience of what it is like to be on the court with high level teams."

Claudia Noguera – Nicaragua Captain: “Even though we lost today, I feel our team gave their best and we had a good match against a high level team. For Nicaragua it’s important to play with high level teams because we’re preparing for the Central American Games in December. Tomorrow we expect to play a better game and win the match.”

Cuba trounces St. Lucia at the Women’s Continental Championship

Langley, British Columbia, CANADA. September 29, 2017: Cuba is 2-0 after another win today at the NORCECA Senior Women’s Continental Championship and World Championship Qualification Tournament (Group B).

Today they made quick work of the Caribbean side 3-0 (25-6, 25-6, 25-12) in a match that lasted only 51 minutes.

Dalila Rodriguez and Beatriz Hernandez each scored 10 points for Cuba. Hernandez had five aces included in her tally.

This puts Cuba in a World Championship qualifying position and sets up Saturday for a showdown with host Canada.

Wilfredo Robinson Pupo, head coach of Cuba : “Our main goal here is to develop our players for competition. Some are very young and we’re hoping to give them experience. Tomorrow’s match (vs Canada) will be a tougher match and a very exciting match for the volleyball fans watching.”

Sulian Matienzo, Cuba Captain: “Canada and Cuba – we know each other very well, and they will be a very competitive team for us.”

Kendell Charlery, head coach of St. Lucia: “We had a bit of a slow start with the girls taking a little while to get going, but we showed a little resilience at the end. I think we could have won a few more points. Again, our reception cost us a lot of points, but one more game to go and we'll try to improve."

"It does. It shows that we're getting better every game. We've played some really good teams and they're catching a little bit of a vibe, and I like that. They pretty young and this is a good experience for them. We're going to prepare for the next game and hopefully we can do a lot better..... We're going to take a look at Nicaragua tonight, and prepare to play them tomorrow."

Cindy Wilson – St. Lucia Captain : "Our passing was better than yesterday, but we were unable to execute because Cuba is a bigger and stronger team than us."

"We blocked a lot of balls. We got a hand on the ball a lot more today, but we still need to work more on our defence."

"We are very excited to play Nicaragua tomorrow, because right now we have nothing to lose, and just need to go into tomorrow and enjoy the game."
